

IN A QUIET CORNER OF OUR BREWERY YARD, UP A SMALL, CLANKY METAL STAIRCASE IS AN UNASSUMING GREEN DOOR. BEHIND IT ONCE STOOD THE BOILER; REDUNDANT AND REMOVED, THE STEAM CEASED TO BILLOW ABOVE THE OLD BOILER HOUSE. UNTIL NOW. WITH THE VOID CREATED BY THE REMOVAL OF THE BOILER TANK, WE GAINED A SPACE FOR A DIFFERENT KIND OF TANK, AND ABOVE ALL, A SPACE TO THINK. A THIRST FOR EXPERIMENTATION IS PART OF OUR DNA: LAGERS IN THE 50s, MOONRAKER IN THE 60s, HARVEST ALE IN THE 80s, AND ANY NUMBER OF SEASONAL ALES AND COLLABORATIONS MORE RECENTLY. TODAY, BEHIND THAT SMALL GREEN DOOR IS WHERE WE BREW OUR SMALL BATCH BEERS. IT'S A PLACE TO FOSTER THAT SPIRIT OF INNOVATION, AND TO EXPLORE DISTINCTIVE, CHALLENGING NEW BEERS - BREWING THEM WITH INTEGRITY IN JUST THE RIGHT AMOUNTS. WE'RE ON A MISSION TO EXPERIMENT WITH NEW STYLES AND VARIETIES OF BEERS, BUT WITH NEARLY 200 YEARS OF BREWING HISTORY BEHIND US. THIS IS THE NEXT CHAPTER OF GREENGATE BREWERY'S STORY. AND WHEN WE TALK OF THIS INITIATIVE, THIS INNOVATION, IT WILL SIMPLY BE KNOWN AS.

The Boilerhouse, is where we foster a spirit of innovation, with beers brewed once before the next new idea is mashed and fermented. But we decided one special beer should continue and become our permanent Boilerhouse beer, we simply call it Craft Pale.
